IN this new issue of the Register, compelled partly by circumstances, and not without fears lest to some I should seem

“To lay hands on my father Parmenides,”

I hazard an attempt to complete, compress, and rearrange the Historical Chapters which enriched my last edition.

Hazard must attend any rearrangement of the work of compilers so fenced about with love and reverence, and one of them, alas, with the even tenderer loyalty of regret.* But completion at least was necessary, compression advisable; and other alterations will, I hope, be thought not unjustifiable by results.

And should some be disposed to reproach the present Annalist not so much for omissions as for “commissions,”—for excess rather than lack of zeal in fulfilling the prophecy of the text on the title page,—they may be reminded, as in former editions, that this book is after all meant chiefly for Cliftonians; and moreover that we too like other good patriots “may be presumed to intend the recounting of our past for other uses than mere ostentatious talk,—to nerve us rather for each new crisis of action in the present ;” * or in a living Poet’s words to a similar effect,—

“ . . . if our lute obey

A mode of yesterday,

’T is that we deem ’t will prove to-morrow’s mode as well.” †

In a note to the last edition, Mr. Wilson expresses his thanks “to the Council, for giving me access to their Minute Books; to the Secretary, Mr. W. D. L. Macpherson, for assistance in many particulars; to some of my senior colleagues, and especially to the Rev. T. E. Brown, for criticisms, corrections, and some additional information; and to Mr. Moor for the whole of the chapter on the Games.”

To this must now be added our thanks to Mr. Wilson himself, for to him is mainly due the idea of a historical introduction to the Register, as well as the first execution of it; and to Mr. Glazebrook, who suggested the present recast of the various chapters of the last edition into one continuous narrative.

[Some important additions and corrections may be given here, though the editor of a work of this kind must feel an even deeper despair of attaining accuracy than a recent (O.C.) Essayist on current Politics, who asks: "Why should we correct January up to date to fit March, when April will probably leave both untrue or obsolete?"]

CLIFTON ANNALS,

1860—1896.

OUR Annals begin with a private meeting held on April 5th, 1860, at 7 Gloucester Row, Clifton, the house of Mr. H. S. Wasbrough, at which it was resolved that a new school should be founded at Clifton. Hence originated, "The Clifton College Company" was formally incorporated September 13th, 1860.

In January, 1861, the Rev. Charles Evans, 1861. Assistant Master at Rugby, formerly Fellow of Trinity College Cambridge (Senior Classic, 1847), was elected Headmaster; and in September a Preliminary School was opened in Arlington Villas, under the Rev. T. H. Stokoe and Mr. Blackader.

In September, 1862, however, Mr. Evans resigned 1862. the Headmastership, on being elected Headmaster of King Edward's School, Birmingham, where he himself—with many distinguished men, including Archbishop Benson and Bishops Lightfoot and Westcott—had been educated under Dr. Prince Lee, a famous Headmaster in his time, and formerly one of the most brilliant of Arnold's Rugby staff.

In the same month the Rev. John Percival, Assistant Master at Rugby, formerly Fellow of Queen's College, Oxford (First Class in Classics and Mathematics both in Moderations and "Greats" *), was elected Headmaster of Clifton College.

* He was thus the first winner of four firsts in the Oxford Class Lists. A record-loving age will remember that the first "Double First" was Sir Robert Peel.

On Thursday, September 30th, 1862, the School was formally opened with a service in Big School. The boys, sixty in number, occupied the front benches; the Cathedral choir assisted in the music, and the room was filled to overflowing with friends of the School. The Headmaster's prayer before his sermon contained some words which cannot be here omitted:—

“Grant unto all who teach in this place the spirit and the strength to labour always for Thy honour and glory, and to train up as faithful followers of Christ all whom Thy Providence has committed to our charge. And to all who learn give an obedient, humble, and childlike spirit, and grant that they may grow up in the fear and love of Thee and of Thy Holy Word; and that they may go forth and shine like lights in the world, as true servants of their Saviour Christ. And, O Blessed Lord, bind us together, men and boys, by the cords of love and trust and confidence, that we may live and labour in this place with the single aim of serving Thee, and walking from henceforth in Thy holy ways. And prosper, O Lord, the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handiwork, and be with us and watch over us in our daily work and our daily prayers.”

This extract, with the following one from the sermon itself, “will show with what hopes and aims this School was opened, and suggest a test and standard by which to judge how far we are true and worthy inheritors of so great a trust”*:—

“There is a heavy responsibility laid on every one, whether master or pupil, who enters a place like this, which has no tradition, no history, to guide us. Whatever the future of this College may be, that future will be modified for good or evil, nay, in a great measure it will be determined and acquire its character, by the conduct of those who are at this moment beginning their life in it. If you desire to belong to a place of which you may be justly proud; if you wish to hear this College spoken of as one that bears a high name as a place where truth, and uprightness, and purity, and all Christian virtues are held in honour; as a place where all that is base or unworthy is hated and despised,—then remember that it rests with you to give it that name.

“There is not a single boy who now hears me, down to the very youngest, but may do something to win a worthy, noble, Christian character for this his place of education, if only he will do his best. And remember, all of you, that if any one among you do evil, that evil will not only defile his own heart, but will leave its stain on this unstained spot. And forget not, that it is a different thing to be the first pupils of a School which has its name to make, and its character to win,—it is a very different thing from being members of an old establishment where all this has been done for you. In this place you will be set on a hill, and every act that you do will have a double significance. It is a noble privilege to be so placed, but every privilege implies self-denial and circumspection. If we stand in a conspicuous place, we must take double heed lest we fall. Now, I wish to impress most deeply on you this day that, as members of this young society, you are placed in a most responsible position. I feel this so deeply, and it is of such unspeakable importance that you should also feel it, that I wish to impress it upon all in such a way that you may remember it on your knees, night by night, when your day's work is ended. I wish to impress it so that the remembrance may go with you daily in your relations with each other, and may serve as a strong motive to a worthy life. It is not given to everyone to be clever. The great majority amongst us will never be able to attain to any intellectual distinction, let them labour as they may. Some of you probably feel this, and are discouraged by it; but remember that there is a nobler gift than any superiority of intellect, which is denied to none who seek it. Men admire learning and ability and talent, and it is right that they should, for these are worthy of all admiration; but the only really great thing upon earth, the only thing by which God will judge us, is goodness, and this, thank God, is within the reach of all. Your memory may be weak, and your intellect dull, and you may feel that you cannot keep pace with others; but there is this one thing in which none need yield to his neighbour: all cannot become distinguished for scholarship or other acquirements, but all may be truthful and upright, all can be patient and forgiving, all can be industrious and obedient; and these are the highest gifts which can be found either in master or boys. Of these things I call upon you to reflect this day; and now is the time to make the resolutions that are to guide you after-life. We, your teachers, have to resolve to dedicate ourselves earnestly and heartily to the work of educating you for your calling in life. And we make that resolution knowing something of what it involves. We shall have to do many things which you may dislike and which may be painful to us, but we shall do them because we are bound to do our duty, and that I trust both men and boys will do while united here. But while we, on our side, have to make our resolutions and to pray for grace to carry them out, you also have your part to perform in the act of self-dedication."

The School buildings had been begun in 1861, and the School House and Big School were near enough completion by September, 1862, to be used. The architect was Mr. C. F. Hansom.

The Boarding Houses were: The School House, at first the only large house, and the Rev. T. H. Stokoe's and Mr. Blackader's, which existed till 1863 and 1865 respectively, when they were absorbed—the former into the School House, the latter into the Rev. T. E. Brown's. At first Mr. Dakyns was School House Tutor; then, in October, 1862, Mr. C. H. Wright.

From the beginning the School was divided into Classical and Modern Sides; and their numbers seem to have been nearly in the same proportion from the first.

A complete history of the games of the School would involve an account of all the outdoor life of the place since its foundation; it will therefore be impossible to give here more than an outline of their growth and development. Since 1867 an authentic and continuous history of the games may be read in The Cliftonian, and it will only be necessary here to notice the more important incidents and developments there and elsewhere recorded. "One preliminary remark it may be worth while to make. Ever since the School began, the games have been regarded as an essential part of the education of the place, and it has always been part of our unwritten constitution to keep games and work so harmoniously combined as to avoid anything like a division into those that work and those that play; and on these lines the development of the games has always run."*

The games of the School began in the Winter Term of 1862 with Football, organised on the Rugby system by Wellesley, the first Head of the School and virtually† the first Cap, with the help of Mr. Dakyns (the first master appointed by Dr. Percival), a very well-known "Cap" of his day at Rugby.

One of the earliest Heads of the School writes :
1863. "In the First Term of 1863 Runs were organised by Wellesley with a good deal of vigour, and I believe the Penpole and Horfield countries were pretty thoroughly explored." There is a tradition that the earliest pioneers were the Headmaster and Mr. Dakyns. For the first ten years the runs were regular paper-chases, in which the hounds started with a real desire and intention to catch the hares (once only were the hares overtaken in a ditch), and there was a genuine race between the hounds as to who should come in soonest after the hares. Marks were awarded to each competitor according to the place and time in which he came in, the limit of time being within five minutes after the first in: these were added up at the end of the season, and the fellow who had the highest marks became the Holder of Big Side bags for that year; a cup also was attached to this dignity. At first the whole School ran together, and those who came in were divided into two sets, there being two prizes, one open to all, the other for those under fifteen; but in 1871 the runs were divided into

† Register, Sept., 1862.

Big Side and Little Side. In course of time this system wore itself out, attendance became irregular and scanty, and in 1873 the pack system was instituted. By this system the School, for running purposes, was divided into two packs, an upper and a lower, and each was put under the charge of a huntsman, assisted by two or more whips. The old "run cup" was appropriated to the winner in one run of the Upper Pack over the Long Penpole course: this was the origin of "The Long Penpole." The old "run cup for those under fifteen" was appropriated to the winner in one run of the Lower Pack over the Short Penpole course: this was the origin of "The Short Penpole."

This system has been in existence with varying success ever since, and has received further developments, all tending to make the runs at once more possible and palatable for all ages and sizes. House Cups were also instituted at an early date for those under sixteen.

The cricket of the School began in the Summer Term of 1863, under the captaincy of J. F. Walker, and even at that early date the Eleven contained several excellent cricketers, and among them C. B. L. and E. F. S. Tylecote. The clubs against which the School played in those early days were the Clifton, Lansdown, Stoke Bishop, Knole Park, Frenchay, Sherborne School (first played 1865), and besides these the Incogniti and an Oxford College or two; and among the celebrities who played against us in one or other of these matches were E. M., W. G., and G. F. Grace, F. Townsend, C. J. Brune, D. Pontifex, H. Ross, F. R. Price, R. F. Miles, and E. W. M. Lloyd. Some of these matches have become regular fixtures, and others have since been added. We must not omit to mention the match v. Old Cliftonians, which was at first played at the end of the Summer Term, but has now for many years been played on the two days of the Guthrie Commemoration. The most important additions have been the M.C.C. match (August 7, 1871), the Liverpool match (May 13 and 14, 1872), and the Cheltenham match (June 3 and 4, 1872).

The history of the School games in cricket has been much the same, mutatis mutandis, as that of those in football. The regular Big Side games have been from the first Sixth v. School, Classical v. Modern, The Eleven v. The Twenty-two, The School v. Masters, with others of a more movable character.

The history of the fives and racquets of the School is practically contained in the history given in the course of this narrative of the building of the different courts. In the early days the two open hand-fives courts, which used to stand near the present site of the Town Rooms, were the most popular; indeed, some of the best players the School has turned out learnt their play in them. The way these courts were "taken" was, if not decorous, at all events exciting. The court was held as taken by the fellow who first hit the front wall above the line with a fives-ball; the consequence of this arrangement was a rush and generally a dispute. The court might be retaken at the end of every game. "Game-ball," therefore, became doubly exciting both for the actual players and the onlookers, as each one was ready to take the court the moment the game was finished, or even before. Bat-fives also was a very popular game, and so important was it considered that, to quote from a letter received from an excellent and enthusiastic player of that time, "Small, the professional racquet-player (next best to Gray in those days), was engaged to improve bat-fives." This game was further encouraged by a prize given by Mr. W. R. Collyer for an open competition, and by one given by Mr. Dakyns, open to those under sixteen. Hand-fives has also received similar encouragement at different times from Mr. Cay, Mr. Brown, Mrs. Killigrew Wait, Mr. Bartholomew, and Old Cliftonians. The first year any such prizes were offered was 1863. The old open racquet court—long since converted into covered fives courts—saw our first attempts at racquets. House ties in these various games have been in existence since December, 1896; this, at all events, is the earliest recorded mention of such a competition.

The Athletic Sports were first held in 1863.

No account of the games would be complete without some mention of Big-Side Levée, which has under its control the management of the games, with the exception of such matters as are considered either to involve discipline, and therefore to belong to the Sixth Form, or to fall within the province of the Captain of the Eleven or the Captain of the Engineer Corps.

This Levée, as originally constituted by the help and advice of Mr. Dakyns and Mr. Wright, consisted of all members of Big Side, i.e. of all above fags. At the first meeting, held in what is now Mr. Wiseman's School (No. 5) in the first Term of 1863, on the proposal of Mr. Dakyns, seconded by Mr. Wright, Masters were excluded from Big Side Levée. The Head of the School is President. There is also mention of a School Levée, which was probably a merely theoretically existing body. In 1866 a Big-Side Levée Book was begun, in which the President should enter the proceedings, and "keep for that purpose, and for which he should be responsible to Big Side." This book is in existence, and presents, with some gaps, for which unprincipled past Heads of the School are responsible, a continuous history of the proceedings of this body.

Towards the end of 1862 Mr. Percival had proposed to Mr. Hartnell, who then had a small school in Clifton, that he should transfer his school to the College as the nucleus of a department for younger boys, but there was a difficulty in securing a suitable house, which caused considerable delay. In April, 1863, the Junior School was opened at 7 Rodney Place, with Mr. Hartnell and Mr. Luckman as Masters.

In September, 1863, the Junior School had so increased that No. 8 Rodney Place was taken for teaching purposes only, the whole of No. 7 being required as a boarding house.

In 1863 H. W. Wellesley passed (direct) into the Indian Civil Service.

In January, 1864, the Rev. R. B. Poole succeeded 1864. Mr. Wright as School House Tutor. In September the second large boarding house was started by Mr. Brown, Mr. Dakyns waiving his seniority, and Mr. Dakyns and Mr. Begbie started small boarding houses—the former to be the nucleus of the next large house, the latter for Junior School boys. In the same year the house next to Mr. Brown's was finished, and opened in January, 1865, for the use of bachelor Masters.

The football matches played in the first few years were all School games, with the exception of one match against Marlborough College, played at Marlborough in the year 1864, in which our opponents had the best of the game. A quotation referring to this match may here be made from a letter received from a Cliftonian who was one of the combatants: "The game certainly had the appearance of a hostile encounter rather than a friendly football match.

However, all differences and grievances were forgotten during the jovial supper with which we ended the day in the hall at Marlborough, and all finished pleasantly."

On December 19, 1864, the first stone of the Chapel was laid by Mrs. Guthrie, widow of Canon Guthrie, the first Chairman of the Council.

On February 9th of this year, during a hard frost, the roof of Big School caught fire from a wooden plug left in one of the chimneys. By dint of great efforts of Masters and boys, the fire was got under before very much harm was done. But it was a narrow escape.

The same year also three open five courts were built, standing apart from any then existing building, but now the centre of a group with the gymnasium at back, the small bath fronting them, and the big bath and chemical school on either hand.

In 1865 the Sanatorium building furthest from the 1865. College, now known as No. 2, was erected. The five courts erected in the previous year were covered, partly at the expense of the Headmaster.

In May, 1865, Mr. W. R. Collyer succeeded Mr. Poole (who took a small boarding house for Junior School Boys) as School House Tutor.

The Choral Society was started this year; and the first (cricket) match v. Sherborne played: it ended in a tie.

In 1865, G. F. Whidborne got a Scholarship at C.C.C., Cambridge, and E. O. Hay (direct) admission to R.M.A., Woolwich.

In 1866 the Honours were as follows:—A. W. 1866. Paul, Schol., Wadham, Oxford; F. A. Prichard, Schol., Pemb., Oxford; J. I. Cohen, Schol., Worcester, Oxford; W. B. Wilson, Open Exhib., St. John's, Camb.

By September, 1866, the wing of Big School containing the (old) Sixth Form room was ready for use. Hitherto the gallery (and then the east end) of Big School had been used as the School Chapel.

On Saturday, June 15th, 1867, the present Chapel 1867. was licensed by the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol (Dr. Ellicott), who preached from Rev. xiv. 13; and next day a sermon was preached there by Dr. Temple, Headmaster of Rugby, afterwards Bishop of Exeter and then of London, who took for his text the Parable of the Sower. One extract from this sermon shall be given :—

"Week by week this Chapel and its services is meant to preach to you, and assuredly will preach to you, its silent sermon—will teach you, almost without your knowing it, with its unspoken exhortation, will secretly remind you of the Gospel of our Master and Redeemer, and of His ever-repeated call to walk with your eyes fixed on His face. Years hence, when many of you are old men, the secret power of its influence will still be working on your character. Years hence, many of you will find that the School Chapel holds the central place in your memories of school life. You will remember with affection and with lingering, clinging pleasure, the warmth of youth, and the pleasant companions, and the joyous games, and the triumphs and disappointments, and the progress through the School, and the recurrence of the regular lessons; but you will find that, however you may have lived—perhaps it may be all unworthily of such a blessing—the School Chapel and the Sunday services, and perhaps particular sermons that struck you and made a great difference to you, and perhaps conversations with intimate friends about them, and many other great matters and small matters connected with the Chapel, will stand out in the memory, and by their hold on your feelings will prove how many lessons they taught you—lessons, it may be, sinfully forgotten, but taught for all that, and making you responsible for your obedience or disobedience to their spirit. The Word of God is as the seed. But the regular services, such as you will find in this Chapel, will be like the fixed return of the living warmth, of the quickening light, to the growing plant. You will not be set free from all need of exertion. Far otherwise . . . You will have to do your part. But, meanwhile, the fixed order of your religious life will do its appointed part, as the rain and the heat bring the plant out of the earth, and, without your knowing it, while you rise night and day, the seed shall spring up and find its place in your soul, and you will most certainly be a different man from what you would have been if there had been no such building here, no such services, no such regularity of religious observance."

The following is a list of the first gifts made to the College Chapel :—Tower, built by the Council in memory of Canon Guthrie, to be called the Guthrie Memorial Tower, and clock given by friends and neighbours; rose window, presented by President, Vice-Presidents, and Council; organ, given by Dr. Percival; communion plate, given by the Junior School in memory of J. R. Coles; cloth for communion table, given by Mr. H. M. Clarke; oak lectern, given by Dr. Black; alms-bowl, given by Dr. E. L. Fox; communion table, given by a lady; pulpit, given by the Masters; chancel chairs and stools, given by Dr. and Mrs. Goodeve; Bible, given by Mr. John Hare; Prayer Books, by Mr. Luckman and Mr. Trimmell; the three centra windows of the apex in memory of Canon and Mrs. Guthrie, "Founders of this Chapel"; the third window from these on the south, given by M. H. and A. C. Pirie, "In memory of their schooldays here."

A third large boarding house had now been built, and was opened by Mr. Cay in September, 1867, Mr. Dakyns again waiving his seniority. The Gymnasium, too, was built this year, and the first Scientific Laboratories, long since removed to make room for other buildings.

By the year 1867 the regular School football games—Sixth v. School, Classical v. Modern, School House v. School, Eleven and Twenty-two v. School, and others of a more scratch character, such as "A to K v. The Rest"—were in full swing.

In the cricket of 1867, the first century in a foreign match—112 v. The Masters—was made by E. F. S. Tylecote, captain next year (1868) of the Clifton and afterwards of the Oxford Eleven.

In the same year the Challenge Cup was presented to the School by the Old Cliftonians, and was won on this first occasion by E. F. S. Tylecote, who got the first prize in the mile, half-mile, hurdle race, and grand steeplechase, and the second in the high and broad jumps. Three events occur in the original list which have since disappeared—the 300 yards, the grand steeplechase, throwing at wicket; of these the last named has gone beyond recall, for the 300 yards has been substituted the quarter-mile, and, for the steeplechase, the long hurdles. This steeplechase, it may be interesting to record, was over a course all round Big Side, rendered preternaturally arduous by artificially constructed hedges and ditches, one of the latter filled with water for the occasion. The Long Penpole has, of course, been added to the list of marked events. The prize for the mile has, from the first, been given by the Headmaster.

The swimming races have been an event of the Summer Term from the year 1867. Till our own baths were constructed, they were held in the Victoria Baths. The events in the original races were 12 lengths, 4 lengths, object diving, long diving, open to all; and 6 lengths, open to those under 5 ft. 2 in. These have since been added to, and the long diving has been given up, as it was found to be dangerous.

The first number of The Cliftonian appeared in December, 1867.

A Debating Society started by thirteen members of the School House in 1867 was soon afterwards thrown open to the Sixth and Fifth Forms of the School generally. The numbers were sometimes small, but the discussions were often vigorous. Masters came sometimes as visitors, and made speeches, but the management of the Society has always been in the hands of leading members of the Sixth. The meetings were held in the Sixth-Form room, and the Head of the School presided—on the Headmaster's stool.

In 1867 C. B. L. Tylecote got an open Exhibition at Queen's College, Oxford; and J. V. V. Baker and H. M. Jackson (direct) admissions to the R.M.A., Woolwich.

1868. In 1868 were built the Baths and the Pavilion, the latter partly by subscription, partly at the Council's expense; Mr. Hartnell's House for forty boys was opened, with Mr. Luckman as House Tutor; and Mr. Dakyns and Mr. Phelps started small houses, the latter for Junior School boys.

On May 22nd was held the first Guthrie Commemoration. It included a dinner at the Clifton Down Hotel, Canon Moseley, Chairman of the Council, being in the chair. Several of the Council, the Masters, and Old Cliftonians were present, about fifty in all. It was intended to be, primarily, a commemoration of the building of the Chapel and of "John Guthrie and Caroline his wife," its founders, "and of all other founders and benefactors by whose benefit this whole School is brought up to godliness and good learning." The Headmaster, Mr. Percival, was chairman this year, and till 1877. The sermon was preached by the Principal of Cheltenham College, Dr. T. W. Jex Blake.

Between 1868 and 1873, Mr. J. A. Symonds delivered to the Sixth Form, as a labour of love, his now well-known lectures on the Greek Poets. Several of his hearers became later his intimate friends, and one, H. R. F. Brown, his literary executor and biographer.

At a concert at Easter, 1868, to start a fund to provide an organ for Big School, the "Masters' Quartet" was first introduced. The composition selected was Hatton's "When Evening's Twilight"; voices: Rev. P. A. Phelps, Mr. W. F. Trimmell, Rev. B. Hartnell, Rev. T. E. Brown.

In 1868, Mr. E. M. Oakeley started organ recitals on Sunday evenings in Chapel, at which attendance was voluntary, and averaged about a hundred.

The cricket season of 1868 was distinguished by four "centuries" in foreign matches:—E. F. S. Tylecote, 131 v. Old Cliftonians, 118 v. Horsford's XI., 100 v. The Masters; F. W. Goodwyn, 118 v. Weston-super-Mare;—by the first victory over another school—Sherborne—by ten wickets; and by a memorable "Classical v. Modern" match, in which the Classical innings amounted to 630, and E. F. S. Tylecote's score to 404 not out, till 1881 the greatest single score on record. In the holidays an interesting match was played in the Close between the United All-England Eleven (including Hayward, Carpenter, Tarrant, &c.) and Twenty Gentlemen of Clifton, amongst whom, besides E. M., G. F., and W. G. Grace, were three of the School Eleven—Tylecote, Bush, Goodwyn; and also Mr. W. D. L. Macpherson, then, as now, our secretary. The three boys made between them fifty runs.

In this year House ties at football were first played, the School House having hitherto always played the School by right. For the first three years of the new arrangement the School House was Cock House.

The first Gymnastic competition, too, was held in December, 1868. Two prizes were given—a gold and a silver medal: the first was gained by P. W. D. Cruttwell; the second by E. J. Davies, whose wonderful broad jumping some years later is recorded under his name, at a subsequent page.*

* Register, January, 1865.

1869. In the early days of the Chapel the offertories were devoted by the Headmaster to various religious and charitable objects. But in 1869 it was resolved by Mr. Percival, who associated with himself a committee of Masters, to undertake some one definite object in Bristol. "The desire was strongly present in his mind to create in the School an interest in and sympathy with the poorer classes, and a determination that the city of Bristol should be the better for our presence among them." * They selected work among neglected boys, and established a ragged school in Sidney Alley, The Dings, Bristol.

The Scientific Society was founded on June 25th, 1869. The first President was Dr. H. Debus; the Secretary, J. F. M. H. Stone. Canon Kingsley delivered the Society's Inaugural Lecture before the whole School, after prayers in Big School, June 26th, 1869. Its text—a favourite one of the lecturer's—was "Eyes and No Eyes," on which he based a precept no less characteristic,—"Collect something, if only postage stamps."

The Society meets once a fortnight to hear and discuss papers and lectures, generally on branches of scientific knowledge outside the School course. The various "sections" also hold separate meetings occasionally.

The Preacher at Commemoration this year was the Rev. Lewis Campbell, Professor of Greek at the University of St. Andrew's.

* From The History of St. Agnes Parish, compiled by members of Clifton College, 1890.

House ties in Cricket were first played in 1869, as also were Form ties—"a flourishing institution ever since, which has contributed largely to the growth of sound cricket amongst us."

In 1869, Sherborne beat Clifton by seven wickets.

In September, 1869, Mr. F. M. Bartholomew became School House Tutor, and Mr. E. M. Oakeley took Mr. Cay's House as his deputy, in his temporary (as was then hoped) absence, through illness.

In this year a House, now (1896) Mr. Tait's, then intended for a private house, was converted into a boarding house, and arrangements were made by Mr. J. M. Marshall for its occupation. He, however, left, on his appointment as Second Master of Dulwich College, before it was opened as a boarding house, and it was taken by the 1870. Rev. E. Harris, who opened it in January, 1870.

The same Term Mr. H. G. Dakyns succeeded to the House of Mr. C. H. Cay, who had died in December, 1869. "Fervent in spirit, serving the Lord,"* he was one of the foremost and most devoted of the first "makers of Clifton"; and his early death was long mourned by all those—and they were many—to whom his life had been a continual delight, as now "his memory is a great possession." "There are here to-day," said Dr. Percival in Chapel, twenty-four years afterwards,† "some who can tell you of his eager, pure, and chivalrous spirit, and of the inspiration they owe to him, and how his memory is still shining in their hearts like a lamp of sacred fire."

In 1870 was built Sanatorium "No. 1," the form rooms below the Library and the Library itself, in which an inscription, placed by the Council, records that, "in grateful remembrance of the donor," it is called "The Percival Library."

The Preacher at Commemoration this year was the Master of Marlborough College, the Rev. G. G. Bradley, afterwards Master of University College, Oxford, and then Dean of Westminster.

In 1870 Sherborne beat Clifton by 11 runs.

* By a coincidence strange but intelligible, this text is inscribed on two graves far away from each other: C. H. C.'s at Mentone, in France; F. M. B.'s at Madura, in India.

On March 30th, 1870, an important change was made in the constitution of Big-Side Levée. The Levée had become larger, and its proceedings somewhat informal, if we may judge from a rule passed March 3rd, 1868, "That not more than one member speak at a time, and that he rise to speak"; it was therefore considered advisable to reduce its numbers. This was done by substituting a representative assembly. The resolution by which this important change was effected runs thus: "That in place of the present Big-Side Levée, there be substituted a representative Levée, consisting of the Head of the School, the Captain of the Eleven, the Senior Badge (since 1873 the Representative of Football), the Holder of the Challenge Cup, ex-officio; from the Classical VI., four members; from the Modern VI., one; from the Upper V., two; from the Lower V., one; from the Modern V., one; from the School House, two; from Brown's one; from Dakyns's, one; from Harris's, one." And this, with slight changes and necessary additions, is still the constitution. It must be added that no resolution of Big-Side Levée is valid without the approval and signature of the Headmaster.

In May, 1871, Mr. J. Collins became House Tutor
1871. at Mr. Harris's (till December, 1872), and Mr.
Watson and Mr. Grenfell opened small Houses (in September).

In this year a Physical Laboratory was built, a Workshop, on the site of the original Fives Court, and two Open Fives Courts in place of the demolished one.

In 1871, and afterwards, the Commemoration Supper was held in the Gymnasium, and the Headmaster was the chairman. Since this year, as part of the festivities of Commemoration, a reception in Big School has been given by the ladies of the College, to which Old Cliftonians and other friends are invited.

The Preacher at Commemoration in 1871 was the Rev. J. P. Norris, Canon of Bristol.

In this year Brown's beat the School House at Football, and became Cock House for the first time.

On August 7th, the School made its memorable first appearance at Lord's in a match against the M.C.C.:

"They were the only School eleven who won their match against M.C.C. this year. M.C.C. played three professionals in the first innings and five in the second (1), who all agreed that this was the best eleven seen on the ground for some time."

So, in the Clifton Chronicle, wrote a well-known ever-sympathetic friend of the School cricket; and a presumably less partial critic in the Field quite confirms him:

"This was a new match, easily won by an innings and 81 runs by the Cliftonians, who were pronounced by the M.C.C. professionals the best School eleven they had encountered in 1871."

The Clifton innings amounted to 294; Boyle made 50 not out, Finney 89; in the first two overs of the M.C.C. first innings Boyle bowled two wickets, Lang one.

The Eleven afterwards played (and easily won) a match against Upper Tooting. This match was played after the M.C.C. match from 1871 to 1878, Clifton winning six times, Tooting once.

Against Sherborne Clifton made 358, but want of time prevented the match being finished. W. Fairbanks made 129 not out.

In 1872 an open Racquet Court was built, where now 1872. are the covered Five Courts, near the small bath.

In September, Mr. Wiseman opened a small boarding house.

The College Hymn Book was first used in Chapel on Advent Sunday, 1872. It was compiled by a Committee of Masters and Boys, and has since been thrice (1875, 1885, 1893) re-edited and enlarged.

The Commemoration Preacher this year was the Master of Marlborough College, the Rev. F. W. Farrar, afterwards
Dean of Canterbury.

In 1872 an important change was made in the constitution of the Debating Society and the method of its debates.
Since that time the debates have been held in imitation of the House of Commons, the Head of the School presiding as Speaker. The subject is proposed by a Right Honourable Member, who gets together a Government to carry his measure, whilst some late Prime Minister leads the Opposition. When the House discusses private business in Committee, some of the best impromptu speaking is heard.
A minute entered in the book soon after the change records a vote of censure on two members for reading their speeches!

The Sherborne match was not played this year, owing to illness at Sherborne.

A short account of our first Cheltenham match—"a very uphill fight, ending in a dearly-prized victory"—will not be out of place. It was played in the Close on Monday and Tuesday, June 3rd and 4th. Cheltenham went in first, at eleven o'clock, and were all out for 100 by 1.30. We began batting after luncheon, and at first things looked very bad for us, as we had five of our best wickets down for 13; but then F. Taylor joined H. C. Baxter, who had gone in second wicket down, and these two were not parted till they had raised the score to 86, when Baxter was bowled after "a splendid innings" of 30. Taylor was out last at 200, of which he himself had made 98. To quote from The Cliftonian, "His 98 will be long remembered in the cricketing annals of this place." In their second innings Cheltenham made 162, leaving us 63 to get to win; which was done with the loss of four wickets. The winning hit was made at 3.30.

The M.C.C. match at Lord's was lost by 50 runs. "Had the Cliftonians," writes the Field critic, "been able to play slows, the result might have been different. They are nevertheless a capital eleven, and would hold their own against any Public School eleven of this year, except perhaps Rugby and Marlborough." Boyle made 77 not out, and clean bowled nine wickets for 19 runs.

The match against Liverpool was first played this year.

C. W. Boyle made 133 against the Masters, E. C. B. Ford 117 not out against Lansdown. Boyle's bowling this season took 28 wickets for 190 runs; average, not quite 7.

In the summer holidays T. W. Lang played for Gloucestershire.

In the House matches, a strong eleven of the School House—Cock House since the institution of House ties in 1869—was defeated by Brown's. The match was of course interesting, and the bowling of Boyle for his House perhaps the most sensational, and certainly the swiftest,* seen in the Close till the apparition there in September, 1878, of the "demon" bowler of the Australians, F. R. Spofforth, who so prevailed against the famous Gloucestershire eleven that their three top scorers (W. G. Grace, E. M. Grace, W. O. Moberly) only made 67 between them, and the whole side less than half its average score for that season.

* Boyle's bowling for Oxford the year after this is reckoned by a very close observer, Mr. Andrew Lang, the swiftest he has ever seen in England. (Art. "Cricket," Badminton series.)

1873. In 1873 the Military Side (at first known as "The Military and Engineering Side," preparation for the R.I.E.C. Cooper's Hill being then one of its chief objects*) was established, and placed under Mr. H. S. Hall (O.C.), recently appointed a Master.

In March there was a competition for admission into the First and Second Gymnasium Eights, and also a competition between members of the First Eight for the silver medal given by the School. Since this date these competitions have been annual.

The first Long Penpole was run this year. T. W. Lang came in first. His time was seventy-seven minutes; the course was a (stiff) mile longer than afterwards. The hares were Mr. Bartholomew and a friend.

Clifton this year beat Cheltenham by an innings and 44 runs, and Sherborne by 56 runs.

F. Taylor made 133 not out v. Sherborne, 129 v. Richmond. T. W. Lang made 115 v. Old Cliftonians; in the holidays he again played for Gloucestershire, both batting and bowling with effect. His bowling this year for the School took 76 wickets for 532 runs; average for each wicket, 7.

The Preacher at Commemoration was Dr. Temple, Bishop of Exeter, late Headmaster of Rugby.

From October 26, 1873, to July, 1875, the Sunday Services in Chapel were at 8.30, 11, and 7; Mr. E. M. Oakeley taking the organ at the evening service, which was for boarders only. The Old Testament lesson for the same period was at 4.

The organ in Big School—presented to the School by the Choral Society, by whose concerts, with help of friends' contributions, the organ fund had been chiefly raised—was first used in the Christmas Concert of 1873.

In 1873 some land belonging to the Council was granted to Mr. T. W. Dunn as a site for a boarding house, which was accordingly opened in the first Term of 1874 with about 25 boys, several of whom had been with Mr. Dunn the Term before in a house in Canynge Square. Mr. W. O. Moberly was House Tutor in this House—which in 1878 migrated to a new building—from January, 1874.

The Preparatory School was started in September, 1874, under Mr. Escott, at No. 4 College Terrace. A "Preparatory" Boarding House was opened at the same time, under Mr. E. D. Mansfield.

The Cheltenham match this year was drawn (against us). Clifton beat Sherborne by an innings and 83 runs, A. H. Heath making 120 not out. R. E. Bush made 116 against Liverpool. In 1874, after the M.C.C. match, there was a match against the Surrey Club and Ground at the Oval, won easily by Clifton on the first innings.

The Commemoration Preacher was the Rev. A. G. Butler, late (first) Headmaster of Haileybury, the hero of "Butler's Leap" at Rugby.

In this year the University of St. Andrews conferred on Mr. Percival the Honorary Degree of LL.D.

The association of our music with the late Dr. S. S. Wesley, the greatest English composer, perhaps, of our time (at any rate in the sphere of Church music) is a memory of which the School may well be proud. In 1873 and 1874 Dr. Wesley wrote two Commemoration Anthems for us—first a somewhat elaborate setting, then an easier one, of the passage from Ecclesiasticus beginning "Let us now praise famous men." The latter, now always sung at Commemoration, Mr. Trimnell received in July, 1874, with an interesting note from the Composer. "I assure you," he wrote, "the words—the difficult words—you gave me have proved a hard task. I am pleased with what I send, and hope it will suit your young warblers."

The organisation of the day boys as "Houses" 1875. was first undertaken, at Dr. Percival's suggestion, in September, 1874. For the first two Terms, although to some extent separate, the Towns continued to act as one body for most school purposes; but in April, 1875, they became entirely independent of each other, North Town under the charge of Mr. Wiseman, and South Town under Mr. Tait.

The Museum and the rooms below it, the open Cloister, a new Workshop—the old having been converted into form rooms—and (by subscription) two more covered Fives Courts were built this year.

The Commemoration Preacher was Dr. Percival, Headmaster of Clifton College.

In September, 1875, was established the Sunday Evening Lecture in Big School for Boarders. Partly suggested by the Evening Chapel of 1873-75, it thus itself from the beginning partook of the nature of a religious service. It consisted then, as now, of a collect, a hymn, some pieces of organ music, a lecture, another hymn, and prayers. With few exceptions, the lectures have been given by Masters, but occasionally a visitor, as Bishop Temple, Canon Girdlestone, Professor Bonamy Price, George Macdonald, T. H. Warren (O.C.), A. L. Baxter (O.C.), Judge Thomas Hughes, Sir Edward Fry, has given the lecture.

"The stimulating addresses of the Rev. T. E. Brown, the well-known author of Fo'c'sle Yarns, who was

'For thrice nine bounteous years'

(if it be allowable to misquote slightly one of his own poems) a tower of strength to the cause of humour, and to intellectual life generally at Clifton, would alone have sufficed to give distinction to these meetings. And inasmuch as most of the other lectures also have been of far more than passing interest, one who has been fortunate enough to hear nearly all from a secluded 'coign of vantage' which almost gives his remarks the detachment of outside criticism, may here breathe the hope that a representative selection from them may some day be published, as a memorial of an institution at once peculiarly Cliftonian and yet of more than local interest." *

Mr. E. M. Oakeley took the organ at the Big School Lecture from September, 1875, till April, 1893.

The Ragged School in "The Dings," mentioned on page 13, having been closed when the School Board opened their school in that neighbourhood, the School was now once more free to choose its own line of action as to work in Bristol, and the idea was formed of taking up a special district in some one of the overgrown suburban parishes, and supplying a Mission Curate to work among the people. Uppingham, under Dr. Thring, had already led the way in such work. It was ascertained that the parish of St. Barnabas, Ashley Road, was in urgent need of help. Its population was about ten thousand, and growing fast; its Church was small; it was ill provided with schools and Non-conformist places of worship; it had the general appearance of much neglect; and there seemed no hope of improvement. Mr. Fuller, of St. Barnabas, did all that man could do, and cordially welcomed the proposal to share with him some of the responsibility.

It was therefore resolved, in 1875, to form a Mission Committee, consisting of Masters, Old Cliftonians, and members of the School, to act with the Headmaster, and to devote the whole of the College Chapel offertories to this single object. This was at the time a new plan. It was soon followed by several congregations in Clifton; and since that time nearly all the great Public Schools, and many Colleges at Oxford and Cambridge, have similarly linked themselves to poor districts.

The first Curate appointed was the Rev. H. D. Rawnsley. A room or two in a cottage were provided him, and shortly afterwards the upper story of a long wooden carpenter's shed, part of which still exists at the back of St. Agnes' House, Newfoundland Road, near the corner of Nicholas Road.

Mr. Wilson wrote to Mr. Rawnsley in 1886 for some account of the early days of the Mission, and received a long and interesting reply, from which the following extracts may be given:—

" The Vicarage,
" Crosthwaite,
" Keswick.

" DEAR MR. WILSON,

" You ask me the impossible. My memories of mission work in Bristol are not of a kind that can well bear being recounted.

" But I remember the impressions of the place. Muck-heaps and farm-refuse, on which jerry builders had set up rows of houses, which periodically got flooded, and sucked up fever and death from chill for the poor folk who lodged therein. No lamps. Streets only wadeable through. A few public-houses of the worst sort surrounded a bit of open ground which was called 'the gardens,' in which were tumble-down low huts of squatters in old time. These dwellers were the pick of the neighbourhood. At one of these huts lived an old sailor who had been to the North, in one of the relief expeditions that took food to those who were searching for Sir John Franklin, and he took to me because I was of kin to the Arctic navigator. He was a man who had been converted when he was a prize-fighter in old days at Hull, and he had become a preacher. I listened to many a sermon by his fireside, and was the better for it. I can see the tears rolling down his face as he told me how fourteen of his crew, after starving in the Northern circle, were rescued by another relief party, and could not restrain themselves, but ate ravenously and died like dogs. The 'Ancient Mariner' came before me very really in its pathos, as he spoke.

" The work of the Mission lay round the lowest little public-house and an old carpenter's shop.

" I say it calmly, that it was a forlorn hope, and that, what with the liquor and the want of noble surroundings, the devil had his own way and the parson was nowhere.

"Service on Sunday was much as follows: On arriving there was a free-fight going on outside the public, or the door of the mission-room, among 'Mr. Rawnsley's boys,' as they were called. Then on my calling upon them to be gentlemen and let the women go upstairs first, there was a pause, and up bundled the women and the girls who dared face the meeting.

"Then, to seats reserved in front close by me, the lambs came up, and just as prayer began a fusillade of stones from outside would rattle all along the wooden walls of our conventicle, and the noise of horses in the stables below added to the din.

"In the midst of prayer the door would be knocked at, and the porter would often be overpowered by a strong rush, and fighting would go on below stairs till I appeared, passed up one or two, and sent off the others.

"All would go well till in the middle of the hymn, perhaps, cat-calls and whistles sounded outside, and one of my lambs nudged his fellow, and both rising quite courteously would walk out, saying, 'Sorry we got an engagement with a pal, sir. Good-night.'

"Often a man, disguising the fact that he was in liquor, would be in the midst of the mission congregation, and I had to rise from my knees and help to tumble him out, and come back and go on with the prayers as if nothing had happened.

"I think that is hard work—very—to fight a man downstairs, and come up and try to be in breath as you go on with sermon or prayer.

"The experiment of a Working Men's Club, which Mr. Barnett so generously and genially helped me to start, failed chiefly for want of accommodation, and owing to the fact that we had a weak fellow to be Manager. On three occasions I was summoned because the members of the Club were murdering him. If only his wife had been Manager instead things would have been different.

"Yet the Club had this about it. Some fine political discussions went on, and some of the mechanic thinking class were made friends by means of it. The Freethinker came there too, and he was an interesting being, who gave one nuts to crack.

"There was a gathering close by at the Besant and Bradlaugh Hall from time to time. The thing I learned most of this class was its intolerance of men who stuck to old lines of thought, and would not drift from traditional moorings."

In this year's Football, the Sixth first beat the School. It may be mentioned here that in 1871 the numbers playing in this match were limited to twenty a side, exclusive of Old Cliftonians, the game up to that date having been a general encounter. The House matches made Dakyns' Cock House (for the first time), bracketed with the School House. (In 1881 they repeated their success without the bracket.)

The first match against the Clifton Club was played this year; since this it has been an annual event.

The Cheltenham match was won by Clifton, by an innings and 107 runs.

Clifton beat Sherborne by an innings and 35 runs.

Against Cheltenham A. H. Heath made 164, the highest (till 1887) individual score made in our School matches. The first Clifton wicket fell for 109, the second for 316. R. E. Bush made 111 v. Sherborne.

In 1875 (and 1883-85) there were two matches v. M.C.C., one at Clifton and the other at Lord's.

In December, 1875, was started the youngest, but by no means the least important or successful, of our games—the Engineer Cadet Corps. It began with one hundred members, and was attached to the Bristol Engineer Volunteers, of which Lt.-Col. E. C. Plant (one of the Masters of the School) was the commanding officer. It is perhaps worth recording that ever since the foundation of the corps, it has been the wish and endeavour of those who have had to do with it that it should take rank as one of the games of the School, and not as part of the lessons, and that it should as far as possible have the same organisation as the other games. Mr. Carter was the first honorary Captain; and in October, 1876, the first School Captain was appointed—R. E. Younghusband, then Head of the School. In July, 1876, was the first annual inspection; in this Term, too, a Shooting Eleven was first formed.

In 1876 the Junior School Buildings were ready for use. Hitherto, since their migration from Rodney Place, in 1867, the five Junior School forms had been taught in Big School, where the curious acoustic properties of the room were far from facilitating the processes of oral instruction, though each of the five masters was armed with an admonitory bell, wherewith to signal to such others as it might concern his own form's inaudibility. Some, indeed, assert that not infrequently the five bells were sounding simultaneously.

The Preacher at Commemoration this year was the Rev. Dr. E. A. Abbott, Headmaster of the City of London School, formerly a Clifton Master, author of Philochristus and many other works, theological and educational.

The Cheltenham Match of 1876 was drawn. Clifton had 36 runs to make, two wickets to fall: Greene was 29, not out; and Spence, who had to go in next, had made 17 in the 1st innings, so there might have been a close finish.

Clifton beat Sherborne by an innings and 120 runs.

A. H. Evans made 102 v. Lansdown; A. D. Greene 106 v. Tooting. John Lillywhite (a very competent observer of Public School Cricket: son, too, of the author of a famous definition of the ideal game—"ME bowling, Pilch batting, Box keeping wicket") writes in his Almanack for this year: "The honour of being premier School rests between Eton and Clifton. In Forbes, Eton undoubtedly possessed the best bat; Clifton had decided superiority in quality and quantity of bowling."

Greene's average, 59, was our highest till 1894.

In the House matches, Harris's House was, for the first time, Cock House in football, and (also first time) in cricket.

In December, 1876, the Rev. E. Harris was appointed Headmaster of Exeter School. His House was taken by Mr. E. M. Oakeley. In September, 1878, Mr. C. W. A. Tait became House Tutor at Mr. Brown's.

In 1876 and 1878 the Choral Society gave a concert at the Scientific evening reception at the Bristol Museum. The School Orchestra was started this year.

1877. In March, 1877, Her Majesty the Queen signed a Royal Warrant to affix the Great Seal to the Charter of Incorporation of Clifton College. Thus after a determined and somewhat protracted effort, involving great pecuniary sacrifices for some friends of the School, while it cost others an equally unselfish expenditure of time and zeal, was accomplished the most important event in our constitutional history, "for by achieving it, we emerged from the chrysalis state of a proprietary College, and assumed the outward form of a Public School; the inner reality having been by consent of competent impartial observers our own for some years before this."*

Subsequent generations of our School have good cause to feel grateful to the original shareholders, "to whose forbearance and public spirit" (in the words of the Council's Report in May, 1877) "the College has been so greatly indebted for their surrender of their pecuniary interests, and their cordial and generous support of the Council's efforts to obtain the Charter." It may be added that our Council also deserve much gratitude for their unfailing prudence, foresight, and courage in the management of this as of all our other affairs since 1860.

In 1877 was started the Clifton College Building Fund, which made possible the enlargement of the Chapel, and the erection of the Racquet Court and of the east wing. The Secretaries of the Fund were Mr. E. N. P. Moor, Mr. John Harvey, and Mr. F. Wills.

In this year Sanatorium No. 3 was built, and one of the Junior School Fives Courts was converted into a Form Room.

In January, 1877, Mr. W. Fairbanks succeeded Mr. Tait as House Tutor at Mr. Brown's. In July, the Rev. R. B. Poole was elected Headmaster of the Bedford Modern School, and his House passed to the Rev. P. A. Phelps, who was succeeded in his by Mr. E. D. Mansfield. Mr. C. L. C. Locke took Mr. Mansfield's Preparatory Boarding House. Also Mr. G. H. Wollaston succeeded the Rev. H. J. Wiseman as Tutor to the North Town, and Mr. Asquith Mr. Bartholomew as School House Tutor.

It was agreed that in future some distinguished Old Cliftonian should be asked to preside at Commemoration. The President this year was accordingly T. H. Warren, O.C.† The Preacher was the Rev. A. H. Sayce, afterwards Professor of Assyriology at Oxford.

In 1877, Clifton beat Cheltenham by an innings and 209 runs; Sherborne, by an innings and 284 runs. The innings against Cheltenham, 502, was the highest ever played by the School in a foreign match. The largest scores were: G. S. Saxton, 104; A. H. Evans, 90; H. F. Fox, 75; G. J. Younghusband, 72; C. Haynes, 60.

* Thus in January, 1874, Dr. Jowett, the Master of Balliol, had written: "Dr. Percival has in ten years raised Clifton to the level of any School in England."

R. L. Knight made 130 v. Sherborne; S. D. Pears, 110 v. Lansdown. The House match Oakeley's v. N. Town may be mentioned here as having appeared amongst "curiosities of cricket" in the almanacks of the year: "the innings of Oakeley's amounted to 516; their first wicket falling for 284; and the first two batsmen, Knight and Evans, making 155 and 148."

On March 6th a Challenge Cup presented to the School Cadet Corps was first competed for, the conditions being seven shots at 200 and 500 yards with the short Snider, with which the Corps were then armed. It was won on this occasion by M. O. Norris.

In May, 1877, occurred the first recorded Shooting Match. This was between an eleven of the School and an eleven of the officers and non-commissioned officers of the 2nd G.E.V.C., in which the latter won by 83 points. In December, 1877, Mr. Carter retired from the honorary Captaincy, and was succeeded by Lt.-Col. E. C. Plant, to whom the Corps and the School owe a large debt for his careful and successful management.

1878. This year the Headmaster sanctioned the extension of the Boarding House Tutor system to the South Town, and a weekly evening Preparation was established for all S.T. boys below the Fifth.

In May, 1878, in response to overtures made to the Headmaster on behalf of some of the leading members of the Jewish community, a Jewish House was started, under Mr. B. Heymann.

In April, Mr. T. W. Dunn became (the first) Headmaster of Bath College, and his House was taken by the Rev. H. J. Wiseman, who brought with him the boys of his small House. In September Mr. Wiseman, who had been building a new House, transferred his boys to it, and was accompanied by Mr. Moberly as House Tutor. The House left by Mr. Wiseman was taken by Mr. Watson, who started with about forty boys, half of whom had been with him at No. 1 Cecil Road. In September, Mr. E. N. P. Moor opened a small House.

The sudden death this Term of a Master deeply moved the School: a brass in the Antechapel records that Alexander Fletcher Jones "was killed by the accidental discharge of a rifle at Sea Mills, Feb. 16th, 1878."

At Commemoration, J. A. Neale,* O.C., was President; the Rev. G. C. Bell, the Master of Marlborough, Preacher.

* Register, Sept., 1862.

This year the Rugby Union rule was adopted in Football, limiting the number of players to fifteen a side.

Clifton beat Cheltenham by nine wickets, Sherborne by 23 runs.

W. E. Dunsford made 195 against the Old Cliftonians, till 1887 our highest single score in a foreign match.

The presence of a very strong Cliftonian element in the Oxford elevens of this period almost brings Oxford cricket within the scope of our Annals. "The pick of the Eton and Uppingham elevens," wrote Mr. Andrew Lang in the Daily News, "goes to Cambridge, while Oxford, through years of good and evil fortune, has drawn largely on Clifton."* Thus, in the Oxford and Cambridge match of 1878 all the twenty Cambridge wickets were taken by three Cliftonian bowlers, Heath, Knight, and Evans, the last of whom is described by R. H. Lyttelton in the Badminton volume on Cricket as "the one really good bowler Oxford has turned out between 1880 and 1890."

In June, 1878, was shot the first match against Marlborough, lost by us by 22 points; and the first match against the Old Cliftonians, won by the School by 19 points. And this year saw our first appearance at Wimbledon in the Public Schools competition. We won the eighth place, being behind the winner (Eton) by 52 points.

In 1878 a Society was founded for reading (not construing) French and German literature, with the Rev. T. E. Brown as President. In 1879 this was succeeded by a French and German Debating Society: President, Dr. Sheldon. After Dr. Sheldon's leaving Clifton the meetings of the Society were discontinued.

In April, 1879, Dr. Percival, to the great grief of 1879. his colleagues and the School, resigned the Headmastership, having been elected by the Fellows of Trinity College, Oxford, their President; and the Rev. James Maurice Wilson became second Headmaster of Clifton. He had been a Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge (Senior Wrangler in 1859), and as "Mr. Wilson of Rugby" (where Dr. Percival had been his colleague) was already well known in the educational world for his advanced views on the teaching of science, and his successful development of them at Rugby, and especially, perhaps, for his famous chapter on the same subject in Essays on a Liberal Education.

On Saturday, April 5th, a large and representative gathering of Old Cliftonians met in the Library to present Dr. Percival with an address. On the evening of the same day a combined House Supper was held in Big School. The thoroughly jovial character of the "Combined House Supper" quite justified its assumption of the title; and in the interest and variety of the speeches, it naturally—considering the unexampled galaxy of Old Cliftonians and guests summoned by the occasion—far surpassed even the most brilliant of ordinary Clifton House Suppers. Of all this The Cliftonian of May, 1879, contains a full report, which may still be read with interest.

Of Dr. Percival's farewell sermon, preached April 6th, 1879, it is extremely difficult to quote here less than the whole, which limits of space forbid. As, however, the little volume* which contains it may doubtless be found on the shelves of most readers of these Annals, our narrative may be content to give the Preacher's opening sentences, and wait to be completed by a missing and almost essential part of its proper context, till possessors of the sermon can re-read the whole:

" 'A little one shall become a thousand.' We have reason, as members of this Society, for something of that spirit of thankfulness, which is so conspicuous in the pages of the Old Testament, when effort has been crowned by prosperous issue, or as the Israelite would have expressed it in his reverent phrase, when God has prospered the work of men's hands upon them. The blessing of the patriarch, we might say not inappropriately, has been the blessing of our community: 'With my staff passed I over this Jordan, and now Thou hast made me two bands.' There was thankfulness, gratitude, humility, in this acknowledgment of the Divine goodness; but no elation, no foolish pride; as there can be none anywhere in anyone who rightly appreciates the conditions of any real growth in his own personal fortunes, or any greatness in a human society.

"It is, therefore, to thankfulness and humility as the root of our future hope that I venture to invite you this afternoon."

The President at this year's Commemoration was G. W. Rundall, O.C.;† the Preacher, the Rev. Dr. H. Montagu Butler, Headmaster of Harrow (afterwards Master of Trinity).

Cheltenham beat Clifton this year by 19 runs. Clifton beat Sherborne by an innings and 187 runs.

This year we shot our first simultaneous matches with Rugby and Glenalmond. Since this, other similar matches have been added to our list: v. Rossall, Wellington, Malvern, and others.

* Some Helps for School Life. Rivingtons.

† Register, Sept., 1868.

A. W. Paul's (O.C.) Challenge Cup for House Fours was first shot for this year. Other shooting prizes are:— First Average Score Cup, given by the Headmaster; second ditto, by Col. E. C. Plant; third ditto, by Mr. Moberly; Efficients' Cup, given by Mr. Watson; Recruits' Cup, by Mr. Jupp.

In 1879 the old racquet court was converted into three covered fives courts; the Junior School buildings were extended by enlargement of one room and addition of another; and the old Big Side was divided into the two grounds now known as First and Second Big Sides.

In 1880, the Clifton College Building Fund having reached a total of £3992 13s. 8d., of which part was unappropriated, part was given to the Chapel, part was for new schools, and part for a racquet court, it was decided to proceed with the new schools, the Headmaster undertaking to collect further funds for the enlargement of the Chapel. The east wing was therefore built, from and including the staircase southward towards the Chapel, thus providing seven class-rooms, and an adequate Physical Science Lecture-room and Laboratory. In the same year the observatory at the back of College Gate, containing a good and well-mounted refracting telescope, was given by Mr. A. M. Worthington, then one of the Masters.

The bust of Dr. Percival, by Woolner, which had been given by the School, was placed in the Library in this year.

In the Summer Term of 1880 the "United House" was started. This includes all the boarders in the small Houses in one organisation for games and discipline. If no member of these Houses is in the Sixth Form, a head is appointed by the Sixth out of their own number. Previously to 1880 the small Houses had been attached to the North and South Towns.

In September the Preparatory School was transferred to Gresford Lodge, in the Avenue, and its Boarding-house to 10 Upper Belgrave Road. Mr. Mansfield started a small Boarding-house, Mr. Luckman taking his Junior School House. Mr. Pridden succeeded Mr. Luckman as House Tutor at Mr. Hartnell's.

At Commemoration, S. C. Buxton, O.C.,* was President; the Rev. Professor Bonney, Preacher.

At Wimbledon, the Cadet Corps Challenge Trophy was won for Clifton by R. Percival and W. H. Veale.

The Cheltenham match of 1880 was drawn. Cheltenham had only 25 runs to make, 8 wickets to fall.

Sherborne beat Clifton by 66 runs.

Mr. Andrew Lang, the vates sacer of cricketers, shall here lend us one or two of his ingenious sentences on the Oxford and Cambridge match of this year:—

"The Oxford bowlers 'pegged away' with mathematical precision, Mr. Harrison† illustrating the 'higher curves' in a way that sometimes perplexed opponents presumably well tutored in their theory. . . . The fielders, among whom Mr. Evans‡ and Mr. Greene§ were perhaps the most distinguished, never had the chance to make, or drop, a catch. In fact, the cricket was of that 'passionless perfection' which Guinevere found so uninteresting in the character of Arthur. But the spectators who really knew and understood the game had a great entertainment provided, when Mr. Evans ceased to knock down the wickets with a crash, and when Mr. Bligh and Mr. Studd made their wonderfully plucky and successful stand."*

Mr. Rawnsley had resigned his "Mission Curacy" in January, 1878. He became Vicar of Crosthwaite, Keswick, and found a sphere for his enthusiasm and originality in the work of that large parish, and in developing local minor industries among the people. In May, 1879, the Rev. R. G. Murchison was appointed as Mission Curate by Mr. Fuller; he resigned in 1880. In December, 1880, the Rev. T. W. Harvey decided to take the work, the history of which "became from this time a record of steady progress."

In May, 1881, the Headmaster, Mr. Wilson, submitted to the Council designs for a North Aisle, prepared by Mr. Hansom, and undertook to invite subscriptions from parents to supplement a grant of £900 from the College Building Fund; and to be personally responsible for the whole cost. While the aisle was being built the School met for Divine Service in Emmanuel Church, by the kind permission of the Rev. T. G. Luckock and his churchwardens.

1882. The enlarged Chapel was opened in January, 1882; and during the year the Sanatorium was added to and thoroughly completed: rooms for the matron and bath rooms were added, and waiting-room connecting No. 1 with the older part of the Sanatorium. Also Mr. Brown's and Mr. Watson's Houses were enlarged by the addition of wings.

In January, 1882, Mr. R. J. Mackenzie succeeded Mr. Pridden as House Tutor at Mr. Hartnell's.

In 1881 a petition 40 feet long, signed by 1200 adults of the St. Agnes district, had been presented to the Headmaster, invoking his help; and in response, he had promised to bring their case before the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and also to take steps at once to build a Mission Room, which would serve as a temporary Church. For this he promised £250 as his first donation, and also to preach in the Churches of Clifton on behalf of the fund. Mr. Fuller undertook to raise meanwhile what he could in his district, and Mr. Harvey in St. Agnes itself. Thus it came about that on January 28th, 1882, the foundation stone of St. Agnes Mission Room was laid by Miss Wilson, now Mrs. Harvey, in the presence of a vast crowd of people. The name of St. Agnes was chosen by the people themselves for their new district, partly because St. Agnes' Day in our calendar falls so close to January 28th; partly, as one of them expressed it, they should like a name new to Bristol, and a "lady saint."

The rooms were opened on May 10th, 1882. They consisted of one room 70 feet by 30 feet, and 40 feet high, which was to be used on Sunday for Divine Service and for Sunday School, and on week days for meetings and recreation, and two smaller class-rooms and a kitchen. These rooms now became the centre of the work. Mr. Worthington was Secretary to the Fund. The total expenses were £1948 7s. The architect was the Clifton College architect, Mr. C. Hansom.

In 1882 and the next two years, a Concert was given in the St. Agnes Schoolroom by the School Choral Society.

The Commemoration President this year was G. de L. Bush, O.C.*; the Preacher, the Rev. Dr. Percival, President of Trin. Coll., Oxford, and Canon of Bristol.

* Register, September, 1862.

Cheltenham beat Clifton this year by 99 runs. Clifton beat Sherborne by an innings and 197 runs.

K. J. Key made 181 not out v. Old Cliftonians; H. B. Mapleton, 137 v. Sherborne. K. J. Key played for Surrey in the holidays.

On October 15, 1882, the College Cadet Corps attended its first Church Parade at Bristol Cathedral. The same month, on the occasion of the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh to the Bristol Musical Festival, our corps was chosen to form a guard of honour on the platform of Bristol Station at their departure.

In 1882, the hockey not proving satisfactory, a third pack was substituted for it, and for a time hockey ceased to exist; it was however revived for the benefit of those whom the doctors did not allow to join even the third pack.

In 1883 the altered regulations for admission into the line made it advisable to introduce some special arrangements for Sandhurst candidates; and this department, which was worked along with the Woolwich department, was placed under the charge of Mr. Stevens. It also prepares for the City and Guilds of London Technical School.

The present roof was placed in the Chapel in 1882 and 1883, four of the bays having been given by the Headmaster and Assistant Masters, and three by House subscriptions in the School.

The President at Commemoration was Capt. F. A. Bowles (O.C.)*; and the Preacher, the Rev. H. Scott Holland, Canon of St. Paul's.

This year a Gymnastic competition between House fours first took place.

In the Long Penpole the largest number recorded, 43, came in.

On February 16th, 1883, the St. Agnes' Workmen's Club, 40 feet by 20 feet, in connection with the other buildings, was opened. The cost of this was about £460. It contains a small library, and is of the highest value to the parish.

During this year, our conventional district was constituted as a separate ecclesiastical district; the Bristol Church Extension Commission endowed it with £3000, for which the Ecclesiastical Commissioners grant a stipend to the Incumbent in perpetuity of £150 per annum.

1884. After the Christmas holidays of 1883, the members of the School, in response to a request from the Headmaster, subscribed £360 for a new room, to be called the "Games room." This room also is 40 feet by 20 feet, and is an invaluable adjunct to the Club. It is used for refreshments, and for billiards and other games. On its chimney-piece is the following inscription:—

THIS ROOM WAS GIVEN BY THE BOYS OF CLIFTON COLLEGE, FOR THE USE OF
THE ST. AGNES' WORKMEN'S CLUB.
JUNE, 1884.

In 1884 Mr. Wilson bought two houses in Thomas Street and gave them to the Incumbent of St. Agnes, the rents to serve as a partial endowment for the Mission Room. The Church Extension Commission decided that a Church for five hundred persons ought to be built at once, as the Mission Room was now inadequate, and made a grant of £485 for the site and £2500 towards the building. A Building Committee—with Mr. Wilson as Chairman, Mr. W. E. George as Treasurer, and Mr. Harvey as Secretary—was formed to raise the supplementary funds. Mr. W. Wood Bethell was chosen as architect. During this year Mr. Rashleigh, an Old Cliftonian and member of the School House, worked in the district while reading for ordination. His work was very much valued. He afterwards returned to St. Agnes, as Curate to Mr. Harvey.

In 1884 the Racquet Court and its dressing room were built from funds given by Masters, Old Cliftonians and other friends, thanks very largely to the exertions of Mr. Bartholomew. In this summer a large addition was made to Mr. Grenfell's House by Mr. Oakeley. The whole of the western block was added, as well as an enlargement of the Hall and the Tutor's Room. In the same year the Chemical Laboratory was enlarged by the addition of an upper story. What is now the Masters' private Laboratory was previously the School Laboratory; and part of the present theatre was used as a lecture-room for Chemistry classes. The rest formed the private Laboratory and store-room. The new Laboratory is on the upper floor, and covers the whole space. It was planned by Mr. Shenstone, and opened in September, 1884.

In 1884 some fresh arrangements—of which Mr. C. W. A. Tait took chief charge—were made for giving candidates for the India Civil Service any special instruction they require.

In September Mr. A. T. Martin became House Tutor at Mr. Watson's.

The Commemoration President in 1884 was R. B. Don (O.C.)*; the Preacher was the Rev. S. A. Barnett, Warden of Toynbee Hall, afterwards Canon of Bristol.

* Register, September, 1868.

The Cheltenham match this year was drawn. Clifton had 157 to make, with 5 wickets to fall. The Sherborne match also was drawn, but in our favour.

The arrangements about House nets were reorganized this year, so as to provide some cricket training for those "below colours," and not merely multiply opportunities for promiscuous slogging and erratic bowling.

In April, 1884, we sent up for the first time two representatives—A. Lazenby and J. S. Owen—to the Public Schools Gymnastic Competition at Aldershot. We won the third place on the list, Wellington being first and Marlborough second.

The year 1884 is a memorable one in the annals of Clifton shooting, for in that year's Wimbledon meeting we won both the Ashburton Shield and the Spencer Cup. The members of the successful Eight were H. C. Lewis, R. H. Luce, H. V. James, R. T. Rees, A. D. Mac Iver Campbell, G. P. Greene, E. G. Burr, R. S. Giles (Captain). The highest individual score was 55, made by both Giles and Luce; the total was 354. The Spencer Cup was won by Luce with 28 points. The Eight on their return home were received in triumph by the School in the Quadrangle.

We won the Shield a second time in 1885, and the 1885. School again gave the winners a most enthusiastic reception. The Eight were H. V. James, R. H. Luce, S. G. Rivett-Carnac, F. K. Warren, E. S. Sinnott, C. Beddington, C. E. Lewis, J. M. Probert. The competition of 1884 was the last with the Snider rifle, and that of 1885 the first with the Martini-Henry.

The Commemoration President was G. Pearse (O.C.)*; the Preacher, the Bishop of Ripon (Dr. Boyd Carpenter), who the same afternoon (June 22nd) laid the memorial stone of St. Agnes' Church.

After long negotiations, Mr. Wilson had now persuaded the Town Council to purchase the remaining portion of the old Newfoundland Gardens, with the last of the squatters' huts mentioned above (1875, Mr. Rawnsley's letter) on condition that he laid them out as a public Park. This work was finished in the summer of this year.

* Register, May, 1868.

In the long Penpole, A. W. Peck's time was (till 1889) the shortest recorded:—62 minutes, 55 seconds.*

Clifton beat Cheltenham by 5 wickets; Sherborne by an innings and 34 runs.

G. Fowler made 128 v. Old Cliftonians; C. Cuyler, 122 not out v. Horfield Garrison.

* The length of the course—shortened since 1873—is 9 miles, 7 furlongs. The "Short" is 7 miles, 7 furlongs, 20 yards. These accurate measurements we owe to A. C. St. Paul (O.C.), who gave too the excellent map of the courses, now in the Gymnasium.

In January, 1885, Mr. Tait resumed his position as Tutor to the South Town, Mr. Carter taking his small House. In April, Mr. Phelps having accepted a living in Bristol, Mr. Laxton took his House, which in the summer was enlarged by the addition of a large dormitory, House Tutor's room, and boys' sitting-room. Soon after, Mr. Bradshaw became Mr. Laxton's House Tutor, and Mr. R. J. Mackenzie succeeded the latter as House Tutor at Mr. Bartholomew's; and was in his turn succeeded as House Tutor at Mr. Hartnell's by Mr. H. C. Tillard. In September, Mr. A. T. Martin succeeded Mr. Locke as Preparatory House Master, and Mr. C. H. Spence took his place as House Tutor at Mr. Watson's; and Mr. H. C. Tillard took the place of Mr. Tarver as House Tutor at Mr. Grenfell's, and was succeeded at Mr. Hartnell's by Mr. C. P. Wilson.

In March, 1886, "the introduction of Sir Herbert 1886. Oakeley's Psalter produced a marked improvement in the singing in Chapel."

On March 2nd, 1886, the Church of St. Agnes was consecrated by the Lord Bishop of the diocese. A few special gifts made to it by members of Clifton College may be recorded: The brass lectern bears the initials H. J. W., H. C. W., F. M. B.; the gas standards in the chancel were the gift of Mr. Tait; the pulpit (of stone, with glass mosaics in its panels) was given by Mr. Wilson; the organ was mostly paid for out of the Chapel offertories. It bears the inscription:—

FOR THE PRAISE OF GOD AND THE JOY OF HIS PEOPLE, THIS ORGAN WAS BUILT BY GEORGE JOHNSON,
AND WAS GIVEN TO THE CHURCH OF ST. AGNES BY THE MASTERS AND BOYS OF CLIFTON COLLEGE,
IN JULY, 1886.

The first Sunday in the new Church was a memorable one. In the morning the preacher was Dr. Warre, the Headmaster of Eton. In the afternoon the whole of Clifton College—Masters and boys—occupied the Church, Dr. Percival being the preacher. In the evening Mr. Wilson preached. This was the first church built for a Public School Mission, and the interest felt in it by the confraternity of Public Schools was shown by the fact that on successive Sundays in Lent the preachers were the Headmasters of Uppingham, Haileybury, Marlborough, and the late Headmaster of Harrow. From the day of the consecration the district became a parish, and Mr. Harvey its Vicar.

Reaching this point in the compilation of our Annals, within a week after the death of the famous author of Tom Brown's School Days, the present annalist feels bound to put on record here the interest felt by that most typical Public School boy in our School and our School Mission. Here is a most characteristic letter from him, acknowledging the receipt of the 1887 edition of this Register:—

“Dear Mr. Oakeley,—I found your book on my return from Court, and have now (11 p.m.) run it through with much interest. It is a noble record of good, faithful work for England; and Clifton may be proud of it, and most of all, in my judgment, of the example set, in the Mission, to the other great Schools. I was not aware that the lead in this noble work came from Clifton.*

“I am becoming more of an optimist every year in my old age; and my faith in the future of England—that we shall weather the dangers of our excessive wealth and consequent materialism, of the pandering to King Mob by those who should be guiding the nation—is grounded more on this Mission work of our great Schools and Colleges than on any other sign except the spread of Co-operation. Our upper and middle classes are at last fairly roused, and are buckling nobly to the task of educating the masses in the highest sense. It will be a tough job, for their toadies have half persuaded them that all power in human affairs comes from them; but the old Christian ideals of duty and citizenship are yet going to beat State Socialism and Atheism and Agnosticism all along the line, you bet (as the Yankees say), as you will live to see, though I may not. Many thanks for your book.

“Ever yours most truly,

“THOMAS HUGHES.”

In the winter of 1886, an Eight of the School went down to the Mission Room and went through gymnastic exercises of various kinds, by way of inaugurating the classes held there, with the aid of a skilled teacher and movable gymnastic apparatus, for the boys of St. Agnes.

This year the School first sent representatives to play in the Public Schools Racquets' competition—A. Read and J. R. Head.

A French Debating Society was started this year by M. Bévenot; its debates were largely attended and full of interest.

* [As stated on page 22, Uppingham had already led the way.]

In November, 1886, the Headmastership of Rugby was offered to and accepted by Dr. Percival, President of Trinity College, Oxford, and late Headmaster of Clifton.

The Commemoration President in 1886 was the Rev. F. W. Goodwyn, O.C.*; the Preacher, the Very Rev. the Dean of Salisbury, Dr. G. D. Boyle.

* Register, September, 1863.

Clifton this year beat Cheltenham by ten wickets, Sherborne by an innings and 56 runs.

J. R. Head made 140 v. Liverpool, 109 v. Sherborne.

In Oxford's second innings v. Cambridge, K. J. Key (O.C.) made 140, the highest recorded score in the University matches.

In April, 1886, the School Corps went to the Public Schools' Field day at Aldershot. At the Wimbledon meeting this year Clifton won the Cadet Corps Challenge Trophy a second time; H. S. de Brett and R. W. Versturme being our representatives.

In the spring of 1886 a further step was made towards the completion of the buildings. The east wing had up to this time been built only as far as the staircase, and presented a blank wall to the road. The racquet court similarly presented a blank west wall. The Council decided on completing the east wing according to the original design, and adding at the end of the racquet court a building worthy of so conspicuous a position. The ground floor of this building contains a porter's room and the confectioner's shop, and in the upper floor is a drawing school. Soon after these plans were decided upon, Mr. Tait and Mr. Wollaston, the Town Tutors, consulted the Headmaster as to the possibility of providing the Towns with suitable large rooms, and offered to guarantee the whole cost of these rooms, amounting to £1000. The South Town had hitherto occupied what is now the Headmaster's room at the end of the old cloister, and the North Town had of late years occupied the end room in the new cloister. Colonel Plant also, the Honorary Captain of the School Engineer Corps, pressed for a larger Armoury. The Armoury had hitherto been a small room occupying half of its present floor. A plan was therefore brought by the Headmaster before the Council for the removal of the two covered and two open fives courts, and the range of schools that lay behind them, and the erection of the present Armoury and Town rooms. Four covered fives courts were built at the same time on what was the Headmaster's kitchen garden.

. In 1884-1886 the north side of the Chapel nave was reseated. This and the stalls at the west end were the gifts chiefly of the School. In 1885-1886 the Headmaster put up the present roof of oak to the chancel and apse, replacing the old plaster roof, and also removed the white Bath stone shafts in the apse, and substituted the present shafts of red Kilkenny marble and serpentine. In 1886, also, 1887. Mr. Tait gave the Communion rails. In 1887 Mr. Watson presented the arcading and the oak benches on the north side of the chancel; the School subscriptions, aided by a handsome donation from F. B. May, an Old Cliftonian, provided the marble shafts and carved string course on the north side of the chancel, the completion of the tiling of the chancel, and the gas standards within the rails; and the first window on the north side of the chancel, the gift of Mr. Bartholomew, was put in. It is intended to symbolise some of the early teaching in the Chapel pulpit. The teachable spirit is represented by Samuel and the text, "Speak, Lord, for Thy servant heareth;" the spirit of aspiration by St. John, with the text, "We shall see Him as He is." Above are three angels bearing scrolls, with the words, ἀκούετε, τὰ ἄνω φρονεῖτε, ἀνέριζεσθε. It was given in May, 1887. Shortly before this the window next the gallery on the north side had been put in. It commemorates two very sad losses, and bears the inscriptions:—

BRADDAN BROWN, NAT. 1869, OB. 1876;

MAURICE TEMPLE WILSON, NAT. 1876, OB. 1886.

CONDISCIPULORUM COLLEGARUM FILIOLI DESIDERIA.

In 1887 all the buildings erected the previous year were opened; the Town Rooms on February 19th, in presence of the boys and a large number of parents, who then adjourned to suppers, given by Mr. Tait and Mr. Wollaston, in the Gymnasium and Big School respectively.

About the same time the Secretary's office and book-room were moved to their present position in the east wing.

On July 9th, 1887, the School Cadet Corps attended the Royal Jubilee Review held before the Queen at Aldershot, and on this occasion the Public Schools' Volunteers were formed, for the first time at a review, into a provisional battalion, of which Clifton was the leading company, under School Captain Lang, and did exceedingly well. Colonel Plant was in command of the Brigade of Engineers and of all the Public School Corps.

Cheltenham beat Clifton this year by nine wickets.

Clifton beat Sherborne by an innings and 365 runs.*

A match v. Surrey Club and Ground was substituted this year for the M.C.C. match.

H. S. Schwann made 209 not out v. Sherborne, till 1894 our highest individual score in a foreign match.

K. F. Crawford made 123 v. Old Cliftonians; E. Smith 183 not out v. Hattersley Smith's Eleven.

The year 1887 being the completion of the first quarter of a century of the School, it was decided to make an exception to the rule of asking an O.C. to preside at Commemoration, and invite Dr. Percival to be Chairman as well as Preacher. The parents of all the boys in the School, as well as many residents in Clifton and the neighbourhood, were invited by the Council and Masters to a reception on the evening of Thursday, June 30th. The Library and Museum were thrown open, the Physical Science Room was used as the concert room, the East Cloister and the Library as refreshment rooms, and the open Cloister was carpeted and illuminated with Chinese lanterns. Big School was used as the reception room. On the following day there was a large garden party at the School House, and the usual supper in Big School.

The year was also marked by the first Triennial Clifton Dinner, held in London on July 5th, at which about two hundred were present.

Closely connected with the Commemoration of 1887 was the Jubilee of her Majesty. It was worthily observed in the College, and a full record of all the proceedings is preserved in a special number of The Cliftonian. It will be sufficient to record here that an address was drawn up for presentation to the Queen, and read to the whole School assembled with the Council and Masters and Masters' families, the College officials and the Boarding House servants, in Big School. It was then signed by the Headmaster, and by the Head of the School, C. A. Hooper, and subsequently by the Chairman of the Council, and forwarded to her Majesty.—On Tuesday, June 21st, the Headmaster and the Head of the School were present at the Jubilee Service in Westminster Abbey as representatives of the School. Big School, the Library, and all the College Houses were brilliantly illuminated, and the whole School were out from 9.15 to 11 to see all the bonfires and illuminations. On the same day also the Cricket Eleven and the Shooting Eight and the Racquet Pair were invited by Dr. Percival to try strengths with Rugby. Clifton unfortunately lost all three matches.—On Thursday about three hundred of the School went to the grand service in the nave of the Cathedral, when Handel's Dettingen Te Deum and Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise were performed. Friday was a whole holiday, and the House Masters organised picnics on a large scale. The School House, Mr. Brown's, Mr. Watson's, and the South Town, with the College officials and about a hundred other visitors, chartered a large steamer and went to Porlock and Lynton. Mr. Wiseman's and the small Houses went to Tintern; the North Town to Stinchcombe; Mr. Bartholomew's to Marlborough; Mr. Grenfell's divided into several parties. The Junior School went to Clevedon, and four of their Elevens played cricket matches there. The Preparatory School went to Cadbury. The weather was magnificent and the day most enjoyable.—On Saturday the whole School went to the Review on the Downs, our own grand stand being erected for the purpose.

* This was the last "Clifton v. Sherborne" match played.

In March, 1887, the Mission Committee purchased a house in the poorest quarter of St. Agnes' Parish, to be used as an additional mission room. On November 16th, the Mayor of Bristol, Sir George Edwards, laid the top stone of the now completed tower of the Church of St. Agnes.

The winning Eight were J. Lang, G. S. Sinnott, C. A. Borrett, R. M. Stallard, R. W. Versturme, C. A. Borrett (mi.), C. H. Marshall, C. D. Willis.

Clifton, represented by E. M. J. Davis and R. S. Vandeleur, also carried off this year the Challenge Shield in the Gymnastic competition at Aldershot, thus winning both the Shields competed for by the Public Schools. Wellington was second, Harrow third, Cheltenham fourth. Sixteen schools competed. And in the Boxing, R. S. Vandeleur tied with Poole of Harrow for the silver medal for middle-weights.

In 1888, Cheltenham beat Clifton by 10 wickets.

Commemoration was on June 23rd. C. W. Boyle, O.C.,* was President; the Very Rev. E. H. Plumptre, D.D., Dean of Wells, Preacher.

Warned by Church history how wide and lasting a schism may spring from a controversy about the letter I, we may congratulate ourselves that the debate between our own Cliftonenses and Cliftonienses, over the inscription for the Queen Victoria Gold Medal—the History Prize founded by Mr. Wilson in 1887 in commemoration of the Queen's Jubilee,—found peaceful solution. Referred to the arbitration of two of the first living Latinists—Professor Kennedy of Cambridge and Bishop John Wordsworth of Salisbury,—it evoked replies which, according to The Cliftonian,† “will some day be of historic interest.” Meanwhile, our orthodox formularies must read “Floreat Cliftona.”

The Cheltenham match was drawn this year. 1889. Clifton had 115 runs to make, 4 wickets to go down. E. Field was not out 55, and the remaining wickets having produced in their first innings some fifty runs between them, the finish might have proved exciting.

W. H. Brain made 102 not out v. Old Cliftonians.

In the Long Penpole, C. Ekin's time (61 minutes) is the highest on record, beating A. W. Peck's (in 1885) by almost two minutes.

The Clifton representatives, E. A. Hooper and H. E. McColl, won for her again this year the Public Schools' Gymnastic Competition Shield. Hooper also won the Silver Medal for the highest individual score.

The sudden death of Mr. E. Miller, May 14, 1889, deprived the School of one of our most devoted and loyal masters. See Cliftonian, June, 1889.

In 1890 a Parish Room was added to the Mission Buildings at St. Agnes. The cost was defrayed by subscription, and the furniture was given by the Headmaster and Mrs. Wilson.

If the association of our music with the composer of the anthem "Let us now praise famous men" is a memory of which the School may well be proud,* so too our acquisition of other Art treasures should be recorded in these Annals. Thomas Woolner's bust of Dr. Percival has been already mentioned. The association of our painting with Mr. W. B. Richmond dates from 1890, when the splendid portrait of Mr. Wilson was painted. Two years later, Mr. Richmond consented to preserve for posterity all that could be seized and stereotyped on canvas of the lineaments of Mr. Brown, then about to reseek and be no more seen in Clifton. Later still, the picture of Dr. Percival, the gift of Mr. Glazebrook and the work of his brother, was added to our gallery.

"That little island in the sea,"

In 1890, too, was put up in the Chapel the copy in mosaic of Mr. Holman Hunt's picture of Christ in the Temple, expressly designed to be thus reproduced; the gift of the Headmaster, in memory of his son, Maurice Temple Wilson. At the same time the mosaic pavement in the apse, and a new Communion table, were given by two Masters, Mr. C. W. A. Tait and the Rev. H. J. Wiseman; and a new window by C. W. Boyle, O.C. These beautiful gifts are described in The Cliftonian of July, 1890; and its November number contains an engraving of the painting, taken from The Contemporary Review of August, 1890.

On July 1st, 1890, was first used the new Sixth Room in the Wilson Tower. This marks the completion of the buildings round the Quadrangle, by the splendid addition to them begun in 1889. Its cost was defrayed by (1) a gift of £2000 from Mr. Wilson, who with some of the Masters also guaranteed the payment within three years of another £2000, and (2) a subscription amongst the Old Cliftonians and other friends of the School.

At the Commemoration Supper, at which a member of D.H., H. H. Turner (O.C.)†, was President, Mr. Dakyns

* See page 20. † Register, September, 1874.

(who resigned his Mastership this Term) was presented with two silver bowls, the gift of the Council, and a silver salver from Dr. Percival and Mr. Wilson.

In 1890 Clifton beat Cheltenham by an innings and 53 runs. B. F. Hanson made 112 v. Cheltenham; E. S. Thomas 125 not out v. Trinity College, Oxford.

At the Bisley meeting the School won two of the four Public School prizes: The Veterans' Trophy (for the first time; our 'veterans' were Majors Pearse and Tombs, Lieuts. E. S. Sinnott, G. S. Sinnott, H. V. James) and the Cadet Trophy, won by E. M. Collins and G. F. Cartwright.

On July 5th an entertainment was given by the School "to commemorate the successful close of our work in the parish of St. Agnes, and to take leave of our friends there," to which were invited those of the parishioners who were most closely connected with the work now accomplished. About 250 people from St. Agnes were entertained by some Masters and about fifty of the School who volunteered to act as stewards. The time from 6.30 to 10 was spent in visits to the Tower, the Chapel, the Gymnasium, and other parts of the School buildings, whither the guests were conducted by the Stewards; music in Big School from the Choir and Orchestra; speeches; a presentation of books to Mr. Harvey; a short service in Chapel; supper. "So ended one of the pleasantest and most genial entertainments ever held within the School."

In August, 1890, the first Camp for Bristol Boys was "pitched" near Burnham. This enterprise was the first outcome of "The Mission to Working Boys" which the School had lately determined to take up as a sequel to the now completed St. Agnes chapter of the work in Bristol. The Cliftonian of November, 1890, contains an account of the camp life, which is here summarised, as describing more or less closely subsequent "camps" as well as this year's.

On Friday, August 8th, a "fatigue party" from the School—including Mr. C. P. Wilson, and H. B. Mayor, the Head of the School—went down and worked hard at putting up tents and laying in stores. "The" boys, varying in age from thirteen to sixteen, in number about 100, arrived next day in a rather excited and exhausted condition. Each tent was in charge of two "officers," required to maintain discipline and take interest in his “men.” A bathe in the sea usually began the day; breakfast followed; then “tent” matches at hockey on the sands, athletic sports, cricket. Some preferred a stroll, or catching rabbits, which “always” escaped; on two days there were expeditions. The “tent matches” inspired in the boys a competitive spirit “that would almost compare with our own House matches” “This enthusiasm afterwards appeared in the way the ‘orderlies’ (non-commissioned officers appointed by the boys themselves) did their work for the day.”

“The little fellows themselves did more to make the camp successful than even the most sanguine of us had hoped. They never grumbled at their work or fought about their play, and showed no signs of unreasonableness, except in their extraordinary capacity for very green apples, sour blackberries, and periwinkles.”

The officers were unanimous in declaring they had never spent a jollier week, or with more interesting companions.

At the end of the week the whole party averaged an increase of 3 lbs. in weight, “which points to an enlargement of the body as well as of the soul; and allows us without appearing ‘bumptious’ to pronounce this attempt at a camp a decided success.”

The Winter Term of 1890 was Mr. Wilson's last at Clifton; in the summer he had accepted the Vicarage of Rochdale, coupled with the post of Archdeacon of Manchester. Something of all that he did for Clifton may be gathered even from this compressed narrative; otherwise it would have been the most unhistorical of histories; but, as was said in The Cliftonian (November, 1890), we owe far more to his penetrating influence than even to his boundless munificence. "He has left behind him many visible proofs of his love for Clifton; but these are amongst the least of his gifts."

"During Mr. Wilson's last days at Clifton was ratified the annexation, at a very large cost, of the last remaining available open space near the College and outside its territories, still unseized by those enemies of mankind, the builders of modern crescents and terraces; an almost priceless addition to the playing fields, for some time past urgently needed."*

* Great Public Schools.—Art., "Clifton."

Mr. Wilson preached his farewell sermon on December 14th, 1890. The Chapel was crowded, and many Old Cliftonians were present. These were the Preacher's last sentences:—

"There is a great work yet to be done for England by its Public Schools. And your School, which sends out a stream of men strong in the faith, joyful through hope and rooted in charity, will deserve well of our Country and our Church. Let us pray, one and all, and all most earnestly, that God will pardon our past imperfect ideas and efforts, and make the new influences that shall from time to time spring up here lift your School more than ever before to all that is true and lovely and of good report. Pray also for me, that I may be faithful in my work. May God's blessing rest on us all, now and ever."

At the Concert, before the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" farewell addresses to the Headmaster from the Masters and the School were read by Mr. Brown and the Head of the School, C. F. Balfour, and a gift from the School (silver candelabra) was presented. Mr. Wilson replied at some length in a very interesting and moving address.

"Auld Lang Syne" then followed, and was rendered with even more fervour—but, alas, with even less tune—than usual.

In January, 1891, the Rev. M. G. Glazebrook succeeded to the Headmastership. Mr. Glazebrook had been Assistant Master at Harrow for ten years, and then Headmaster of Manchester Grammar School. He was a Scholar of Balliol, and took a First Class in Classics in Moderations and "Greats," a First in Mathematical Moderations and a Second in Mathematical "Greats." Nor was he unknown to the Class Lists of Athletics, having been the second man in England to jump five feet eleven inches. He was succeeded at Manchester by an Old Cliftonian, J. E. King.

At Commemoration, C. Cannan, O.C.,* was President; Canon Ainger (afterwards Master of the Temple), Preacher.

In the Public Schools' Gymnastic Competition at Aldershot in March, 1891, Clifton, represented by S. J. Lawry, won, for the first time, the silver medal for Boxing (for heavy weights).

Clifton beat Cheltenham this year by 39 runs.

J. A. Healing made 109 not out v. Clifton Club, and W. G. Grace 116 v. Old Cliftonians.

* Register, September, 1870.

The first Football match against Marlborough was played in November, and was won by Clifton.

The Camp for "the hardworked boys of Bristol, who desire and need, but hardly ever get, a holiday," was near Burnham, as last year. In spite of rather unfavourable weather, the fourteen volunteers from the School enjoyed their week greatly, and there was, perhaps, not one of them who at the end of it "did not desire more of the company of his tent-fellows, a feeling thoroughly reciprocated." "There was much done besides eating: expeditions, tent matches at hockey, bathing, cricket, football, flower competitions, sports." (Cliftonian, Nov., 1891.)

 this year at Brockweir, near Tintern. The boys "as a matter of fact did as much to entertain us as we did for them." . . . "The river was a great source of amusement;
 a regatta, which caused tremendous excitement, was the chief addition to other years' programme. Everyone enjoyed the week most heartily." (Cliftonian, Oct., 1892).

The Commemoration President was Mr. H. G. Dakyns;
 the Preacher, the Very Rev. the Dean of Bristol, Dr. Pigou.
 At the Commemoration Supper gifts of plate were presented Moberly's as House Tutor, and Mr. C. H. Spence succeeded him as South Town Tutor. Mr. Wilson was succeeded in September by Mr. H. C. Playne. In April Mr. Hillard succeeded Mr. Withers as School House Tutor. In September Mr. Watson resigned his House, and was succeeded by Mr. Fairbanks.

In the Public Schools' Gymnastic Competition Clifton for the third year running won the silver medal for heavy-weight Boxing, represented this time by C. Bonham Carter. And two other boxing prizes also were won by Clifton, G. H. Malcolm taking the bronze medal for middle-weights, F. D. Nicholson the bronze medal for light-weights.

The Commemoration President was J. Heath (O.C.),* and the Preacher was the Ven. Archdeacon Wilson, Vicar of Rochdale, late Headmaster of Clifton.

Two important resolutions were passed by Big-Side Levée on March 30th: (1) "That Houses (first and second fifteens) should play all round in Football House Matches"; (2) "That Rugby Union scoring should be used in all School and House Football."

The match with Marlborough was for the first time played in favourable weather, but unfortunately their Captain could not play; and Clifton was deprived of two of the best of her fifteen. Clifton won by four goals to nothing.

* Register, January, 1869.

In Cricket, the weather robbed Cheltenham of an almost certain victory, as Clifton had two wickets down in second innings with 115 to make to avoid a one innings defeat.

J. H. Curtis made 111 v. Incogniti.

W. G. Grace and C. L. Townsend played for Gloucestershire in the holidays. Curtis also was asked to play.

The week under canvas for Bristol boys was spent at Brockweir, on the Wye, as last year. The volunteers from the School again voted their week "one of the jolliest possible." "The" boys were sometimes out nutting and black-berrying by 3 a.m.! "It was not necessary to amuse them; they managed that themselves perfectly well. The only difficulty was to prevent them raiding the orchards, though on the whole they behaved very well in the matter of other people's fruit." Concerts in the barn "were an immense success, much enjoyed too by the villagers."

In the Christmas holidays of 1893 Clifton suffered an irreparable loss. "The death of Mr. Bartholomew," writes The Cliftonian of March, 1894, "must have caused a shock to every Cliftonian who was here with him in any of the twenty-four years in which he worked so nobly and so faithfully for the School whose foundations he helped to lay."

1894. The Cliftonian just referred to contains a memoir of Mr. Bartholomew, with all that is known of his last days, and also Dr. Percival's sermon at the memorial service in Chapel, on Sunday, January 28th, 1894. Those touching records will have made many realise even more fully than before how, in Dr. Percival's words, "the memory of such a friend is a great possession." And though no text in the Bible could have seemed more descriptive than the one chosen—"Fervent in spirit, serving the Lord,"—its full appropriateness was felt only by those who were aware of an earlier chapter of our Annals, and of the coincidence recorded in this narrative under January, 1870.

In the Public Schools Gymnastic Competition in 1894 Clifton again won Boxing medals: A. P. Meyer taking the bronze medal in the light-weight contest, J. F. Vanrenen in the middle-weight.

In Cricket, Clifton beat Cheltenham by an innings and four wickets and 115 runs—the Clifton innings being declared closed when 288 had been made for six wickets. In the second innings of Cheltenham, Townsend accomplished "the hat trick"—the second time only, it is said, that it has been achieved in our foreign matches. His analysis at that point in the innings read as follows: 5 overs, 4 maidens, 3 runs, 4 wickets.

J. H. Curtis made 228 not out against the Clifton Club, a score which broke the previous School record by 19 runs. One of his hits was a clean* leg hit for 10, down the Junior slope. For the season Curtis's average was 64; Townsend took 85 wickets for 729 runs.†

The President at Commemoration, June 23rd, 1894, was A. R. Cluer, O.C.;‡ the Preacher, Dr. Sinclair, Archdeacon of London.

In January, 1894, Mr. J. L. Burbey succeeded Mr. Borwick as House Tutor at Mr. Hartnell's; Mr. Borwick succeeded Mr. W. W. Vaughan at Mr. Moor's; Mr. Vaughan Mr. Hillard at the School House, the latter taking some work in the North Town for Mr. Wollaston.

The Bristol Boys' Camp "was very well supported by the School, and we had an extremely good supply of officers, none of whom, it is certain, ever repented of having

The death of E. N. P. Moor in March, 1895, 1895. was perhaps the sorest blow that has ever fallen upon our School. "In a short fifteen months," says a writer in The Cliftonian (No. 156), "we have been deprived of two men who represented in a way impossible to others what the School was meant to do, and what it has done; more than this, they knew it as it was known to few others, from the many and varied claims which they had on the School and the School on them." The same Cliftonian contains the Headmaster's deeply-interesting sermon in Chapel on March 10th, and a notice which had appeared in The Times "obituary" column, of which the last sentences are as follows:—"His graceful scholarship and delicate taste, his laborious patience in teaching, were, in the opinion of his best pupils, unrivalled; a rare charm of manner, combined with the strength of a wholly sweet and noble character, made him dear to generation after generation of Clifton boys; and thus at any gathering of Cliftonians his has been for many years the most familiar and the most welcome presence."

Mr. Moor's House was taken by Mr. W. W. Asquith.

Commemoration was this year on June 21st and 22nd. The President was A. W. Paul (O.C.)*; the Preacher, the Rev. H. Rashdall, Chaplain of Balliol College, Oxford. The speeches—now first held—were on the 22nd, and after them the Headmaster gave his address, summarising the School's history for the past year, and distributed the prizes on this occasion, instead of as formerly, at the end of Term. The Speeches were from Aristophanes (Frogs), Molière (Le Médecin malgré lui), and Sheridan (The Rivals).

In the Public Schools' Gymnastic Competition of 1895, B. H. Littlejohns took the Bronze Medal for the second highest individual score in gymnastics, and J. F. Vanrenen the Bronze Medal for middle-weight Boxing.

* Register, September, 1862.

This year, for the first time, the School sent a detachment to the Annual Public Schools' Camp at Aldershot.

In Football, Clifton beat Marlborough, the third time in succession.

In Cricket, the Cheltenham match was drawn in our favour: Clifton had 23 runs to make, with four wickets to fall; the not outs were 23 and 11, and the three still to go in had made 37 between them in the first innings.

The Camp for Bristol Boys began as usual on the first Saturday of the summer holidays, and its record was much like its predecessors', except that every day but one was wet from about 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Notwithstanding this, however, "the work of the Camp was exceedingly jolly and interesting; all the boys were keen, and ready to do anything"—almost too keen at times,—“the first night no Bristol boy can sleep; all were up by one o'clock to gather mushrooms, etc.”

The Cliftonian of July, 1895, contains a drawing in the proper colours of the School coat of arms, lately granted by the Heralds' College, to take the place of the old familiar coat which had covered our heraldic nakedness now these thirty-three years, and seemed to many of us to have acquired a kind of vested right and venerable prescription of its own. Others, however, could not get over the comical inaccuracies both of conception and execution which betrayed its amateur origin, and especially its rather poor joke—for was it not a joke?—of annexing the arms of the Clifton family (“The arms of the College are those of Clifton, quartered with those of the See of Bristol,” &c.). In spite of the inconvenience caused by not having at first “cut one's coat according to one's cloth,” the substitution of the reality for a mere sham is a solid gain to us all.

In the Boxing in the Public Schools' Gymnastic 1896. Competition in March, 1896, A. P. Meyer won the silver medal for middle-weights, and E. W. Baker the bronze medal for feather-weights.

The Long and Short Penpole courses were altered this year in consequence of difficulties with a farmer. The Cliftonian of April, 1896, describes fully the new courses.

In April W. N. Pilkington was first in the 120 Hurdles in the Public Schools' Athletic Competition at Stamford Bridge, winning the Challenge Shield presented by Messrs. Godfrey and Cecil Shaw.

Cheltenham beat Clifton this year by five wickets.

On the two last days of Term a match was played against Haverford College, U.S.A. The Clifton innings was "declared" when 400 had been made for two wickets, with E. H. L. Steinthal 216 not out, W. N. Pilkington 113 not out. The Americans made 145. Rain prevented a conclusion.

E. H. L. Steinthal made 130 against the Old Cliftonians; G. H. Noton 104 v. Liverpool.

Just before Commemoration "the sad news of Mrs. Percival's death cast a deep gloom over the School. Her loss cannot perhaps be fully realised by the present generation; but we all can and do sympathise with our first Headmaster, and treasure the memory of her who devoted her life to the School, and was beloved by all who knew her." (Cliftonian, July, 1896.)

Commemoration was on June 26th and 27th. The President was J. E. King, O.C.;* the Preacher the Rev. C. H. Simpkinson. The Speeches were on June 27th. The Headmaster's address contained, as usual, a summary of the various distinctions of the past year, "including the first Scholarship at Balliol, the first place in the Woolwich list, the Sword of Honour at Sandhurst, and the Pollock Medal at Woolwich; the latter has been won by Clifton six times during the last six years."

And this seems a suitable last word to close the record of "our brief but not barren Past."

* The plausible but incorrect conjecture that this match was also "made memorable" by an abnormal weakness of bowling, has been adopted by a very high authority, Mr. W. G. Grace, in his book on Cricket. As a prima facie refutation, it may be here noted that in the Clifton Club match of this same year, 1868, (won by the School by 31 runs) the greatest cricketer of our time was himself twice out to the bowling of A. T. Taylor, one of the "Modern" bowlers in the "Modern v. Classical" match, for a total of only twelve runs. ["W. G. Grace, c Bodington, b Taylor, 4; c E. F. S. Tylecote, b Taylor, 8."]

Was in sole charge of the Peryar Diversion Works from 1893 to their completion, in April, 1896. [This was a reversal of the order of Nature, by which a great river which ever since the formation of the Indian Continent had flowed west was made to flow east. The Indian Public Works Department, "which thinks nothing of correcting the oversights of Providence," determined to readjust the water-supply of Southern India, on the east of which had hitherto prevailed a perennial drought, while its west was most abundantly watered by several mighty rivers; and called across the watershed of the Ghâts the superfluous streams of the Peryar, to redress the balance, and irrigate a hundred square miles and more of arid plains. Such a summons recalls the boast of Glendower*; but here were magicians able to enforce their bidding. A dam was made (180 feet high, about 150 feet thick at its base, and 1200 feet long) vast enough to turn the whole of the river's upper valley into a reservoir; and then a tunnel, six thousand feet long, under the watershed! The difficulties were great, the district being a roadless jungle, malarious, and full of tigers and wild elephants.]
